

Content outline

Maggie Liu

10/31/21

Project Title: Taiwanese superstitions

This website will contain multiple pages of types of Taiwanese superstitions that are widely believed by Taiwanese people over several generations and still today. I will make the illustrations to make the website feel cohesive. Each page will contain several (3-5) superstitions.

- Home page
 - Introduce types/areas of Taiwanese superstitions and how prominent they are in Chinese/ East Asian culture.
- Societal superstitions
 - Unattended red envelopes
 - Knocking at Lodges
 - Kuai Kuai Snacks
- Gift-giving superstitions
 - Clocks
 - Handkerchiefs
 - Sharp objects
 - Red pens
- Feng shui
 - More research
- Folklore
 - Lunar New Year
 - Fireworks
 - firecrackers
 - Ghost Festival
 - Swimming
 - Wind chimes
 - Birthdays after midnight
 - Operas first row
 - Umbrellas indoors
- Sources
 - Page of sources used